

International Aviation Service, Inc.

Family Owned Since 1961

International Aviation Service, Inc. (IAS) has openings for individuals who aspire to work in the aviation industry and be part of our well-established company with over 60 years in aviation.

Aircraft Refuelers are responsible for performing all aspects of aircraft refueling operations on various aircraft in a safe, accurate, and timely manner. Refuelers are also responsible for recording all flight and fuel information onto daily paperwork/ tickets, including the tracking of fuel inventory. Aircraft Refuelers must also safely operate fleet vehicles and equipment. Candidates must be willing and able to work effectively in a team environment and individually.

What We Offer:

- Extensive on the job training (no experience required)
- Starting pay ranges from $20/hr.- $22/hr. (DOE), overtime is available. Potential pay increases possible within first 6 months of employment based on training performance.
- Employer paid health and life insurance (no payroll deduction).
- 401k with employer match.
- Paid time off, with no yearly caps.
- Excellent team environment.
- Opportunities for growth and development.

Minimum Qualifications:

- High school diploma or G.E.D.
- Valid driver's license and clean driving record, current CDL is a plus.
- Ability to pass pre-employment drug testing and background check.
- Must be able to lift up to 50 lbs.
- Ability to perform basic math calculations.
- Ability and willingness to work outdoors in all kinds of weather.

Schedule:

- Full-time, 40+ hour per week.
- 8–10-hour shift options.
- Afternoon, evening, and overnight shifts available.
- Weekends and holidays as scheduled.